IN THE HIGH COURT OF BOMBAY AT GOA

CRIMINAL REVISION APPLICATION NO. 42 OF 2007

MRS. REENA JAIN ... Petitioner
Versus
MR. NILESH KESHAV NEUREKAR THROUGH POWER OF ATTORNEY GOPAL R. PRABHU GAONKAR AND ANR., ... Respondents

Mr. Yogesh Nadkarni, Advocate for the petitioner.
Mr. A. N. S. Nadkarni, Advocate for respondent No.1.

Coram:- D. B. BHOSALE, J.

Date:- 30th November, 2007

P.C.

The learned Counsel for the parties submit that the parties have amicably settled their all disputes and in so far as instant criminal revision application is concerned, they have tendered consent terms, duly signed by the parties and their respective Advocates.

2. The consent terms are taken on record and marked "X" for identification. The undertakings given in the consent terms are accepted. Criminal revision application stands disposed of in terms of the consent terms.

D. B. BHOSALE, J.

ssm.